Version 1.3.0 of Keyboarding Pro DELUXE was originally intended to help schools who had printing problems, but we added other features and corrections that will benefit everyone. Updates include:

- New Word Processor, which will work better in the .NET environment.
- New Report Generator to fix the printing problems some schools experienced.
- Special Instructions for activities are made more prominent.
- Information button redisplay the special instructions during the exercise.
- The maximum errors per minute preference for Timed Writings applies only to the Timed Writing Report; Lesson Reports will not report 0 GWAM if errors exceed the maximum.
- Four new tutorials located under References address possible software issues.
- Additional document corrections were made to agree with the textbooks.

Keyboarding Pro 5 (Ver. 5.0.4) includes a recent patch.

Points to Know

- Advise your bookstore of the new ISBNs if ordering standalone items.
- Bundles: We will automatically substitute the new software in the previous bundles as soon as inventory of the new software is available in a few weeks.
- Instructors who have received a previous version of the site license will automatically receive Version 1.3 site license in early December. If you need it soon, a downlink is available at the product website.
- Instruct technology administrators to update workstations to Version 1.3 so that the school environment is totally compatible with the new student software.
- Students who already have Version 1.2 of DELUXE should not experience problems working with the site license of Version 1.3 at school.
